

Job Vacancy Posted: February 2008

Landmark Data Manager

Start Date: ASAP

Location: Houston Texas USA

GTS Geotech are currently seeking to recruit a number of Landmark Data Manager. We have a number of positions available based in major oil companies, where you will work as part of a support team.

Role and responsibilities

- 2D & 3D seismic data loading into Landmark
- Ensure data is loaded using correct cartographic projection
- Manage projects already loaded and associated disk resources
- Project creation and management
- Import/Export of interpretation data

Background/Experience:

- Desired: 3+ years of E&P industry experience
- Experience with Landmark applications including SeisWorks and OpenWorks
- Proficient with Unix/Linux OS, tape drives and stackers, data loading and transfer routines
- Experienced in performing quality control of navigation and directional data.

Technical Competencies:

- Understanding of Exploration and Production technologies and dataflows
- Ability to match technical solutions to customer's business needs
- Excellent analytical and problem solving skills
- Thorough knowledge of data management in SeisWorks
- Proficient with Unix/Linux OS

You will need to be already authorized to work in the USA or be an existing GTS Geotech employee.

Please include your current salary details when responding. Email your CV and cover letter to tim.shepherd@gts-geotech.com

GTS Geotech offers a competitive salary depending on experience, benefits package, including non-contributory pension scheme and private health and travel insurance, relocation assistance may be available if required.